Dolls and Dollhouses

at the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House

These dolls don't cry or laugh or say "Mamma," their diapers don't have to be changed and their hair doesn't grow. The classic dolls on display at the Mattapoisett Museum and Carriage House date back as early as the 1840s and come from a time when everything was more or less left to the imagination. The museum is featuring a fine collection of dolls and dollhouses, as well as doll furniture. The exhibit includes such fascinating dolls as a tin-head doll, a pumpkin-head doll, Corn Husk dolls, an authentic Raggedy Ann, Chase Dolls, international dolls and miniatures.

One little girl asked museum curator Bette Roberts if it was all right to put her doll in the exhibit, "even though its eyes were out." Ms. Roberts gladly accepted her 84-year-old doll to add to the display.

There's even a summer cottage for rent at Crescent Beach, complete with miniature screen porch, sand, red wagons and a barbecue. A replica of a "Peddler" Doll from the 18th Century from England is an interesting doll. It's said these women travelled about the countryside as pack peddlers, selling needles, pins, ribbons, and other small articles. They were called "Notion Nannies." Their hands and faces were carved out of wood, Ms. Roberts pointed out.

The pumpkin head dolls are named that because they were made out of a molded wax. "They're probably called that because their heads look like a squash," Ms. Roberts speculated. There are miniature tin houses from England, where everything is colorfully painted, instead of the traditional three dimensional dollhouses. Ms. Roberts said they were really old souvenirs made by old English Construction.

In the "Moby Dick Inn," a man relaxes in a bubble bath, made of hardened wax. Miniature furniture, quilts, beds, checker boards, baskets and even a cat and parakeet decorate the inn. A turkey dinner is prepared with a ham, miniature bread and other delicious looking foods. There's a red-headed and brown-haired Raggedy Ann, looking as cuddly as ever. There's even an exquisite display of a doll collection of First Lady gowns as shown in the Smithsonian Museum. And what dollhouse collection would be complete without a "General Store?"Then there's the fable of "Frozen Charlotte," who in the 1850s went on a ride in an open horse drawn buggy on a very cold night with her boyfriend. She wore only a shawl, not wanting to spoil her image in her new gown. By the end of the trip, she froze to death and her beau died of a broken heart.

"On a many a cold and wintry night, young swains were gathered there, for her father kept a social board, and she was very fair."

"Her father loved to see her dress, fine as a city belle, she was an only child he had, and he loved his daughter well."

"On New Year's Eve when the sun was set, she gazed with a wistful eye, out of the frosty window forth, to see the sleighs go by."

"She restless was and longingly looked, 'till a well known voice she heard, came dashing up to her father's door."

"Young Charlie's sleigh appeared, her mother said, "My daughter dear, this blanket round you fold, For 'Tis an awful night without, and you'll be cold."

"Oh Nay, Oh Nay," young Charlotte cried and she laughed like a gypsy queen. To Ride in a blanket muffled up-I never should be seen."

What would a Mattapoisett collection of dolls and houses be without a boathouse? "Blaire's Seafood Circa 1944," is colorfully decorated with buoys, hanging fish, lobster traps, and other fishing equipment.

students back in the early 1900s. The principal of a training hospital in Hartford, Connecticut asked if the dolls could be made adult-sized for the nurses to practice on. In 1911, the first adult-sized doll was sent to the Hartford Hospital. She now is taking a well-deserved rest in the hospital's historical collection. As the nurses were given more duties to perform, more intricate mechanisms were installed within the body reservoir to make the doll a more valuable teacher. According to Marjorie Bradshaw, author of the book, "Story of Dolls," "The mannequins used had similar ventilation movement, dilated pupils, and even a variety of cardiac rhythmic patterns. Practicing on mannequins that seemed almost human in many ways gave the nurses confidence to use any of the same procedures on live patients." The following poem was written about the mannequin.

"I think I shall never see a patient who so patiently, lets strangers wash her feet and face, as our phlegmatic Mrs. Chase."

"A patient who, in calm response lets "probies" irrigate her nose, or when they give her a hot pack, and happen to expose her back, she never murmurs or complains."

"But instead her state of calm remains, a credit to the human race, A blessing on thee, Mrs. Chase."

Mrs. "Dell" Jenkins loaned her daughters'antique, hand-made doll furniture collection as well. Her daughters saved their babysitting money to buy the furniture from a Mr.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

July 25, 1995

by Amelia Thrall

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, July 25 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Paul Lambalot. Also present were Selectmen Daniel O. Mahoney, Selectman John N. DeCosta, and Executive Secretary Carol J. Adams.

The meeting was called to order at 7:13 and began with the approval of minutes and the signing of the treasury warrant, licenses, and permits.

The board received a letter of complaint from Wayne Walega of Walega Associates concerning the construction on Route 6. "It comes in the height of the retail season. This is the time when many businesses try to get a little ahead and take advantage of the additional summer population. There are more than forty businesses located between the two stop lights." "There's not much we can do about that," said Chairman Paul Lambalot. "It will be done before you know it," Selectman Mahoney added. The construction is scheduled and run by the state and summer weather is essential to the work being done.

Robert Coquillette sent the board letters from

Attorney General Scott Harshbarger against casino gambling. "The economic myths being peddled by the gambling industry exploded at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston conference just a few weeks ago. Every economist present testified that, with very, very few exceptions, gambling is at best a wash. At best, casino gambling produces as much as it destroys in terms of jobs and revenues," wrote Attorney General Harshbarger. Barbara Ketchel sent a request for a copy of the board's letter to the Bureau of Indian Affairs concerning the casino. Executive Secretary Adams said that a copy would be sent.

Philip G. Coates, Director of the Division of Marine Fisheries, submitted the annual closures of Mattapoisett River, Cove Creek, the Mattapoisett Boat Yard, Pine Island Pond, Hiller Cove Brook, and the town docks to all shellfishing.

Chief of Police James Moran "reviewed the area on Barstow Street where St. Anthony's church is requesting two handicapped parking spots and find no problem with their request." Stephen Kelleher, architect, submitted "a sketch of the sidewalk modifications" which received the board's unanimous approval.

Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, July 25 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Albert E. Winters. Also present were Selectman Loretta B. Schaefer, Selectman Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson, Secretary Helene Craver and Executive Secretary Ray Pickles.

The Board signed and approved the minutes of the July 11 meeting and signed the treasury warrant for the week. At 7:05 pm a show cause hearing was held for Rosemarie Lupo, owner of Lupo's Variety, as to why she should not be ordered to permanently remove automatic amusement devices located in the store. No representatives for Lupo's were present at the hearing. On May 30, she was denied permits for automatic licenses until the property could be brought into compliance. On July 14, Sgt. Lincoln W. Miller said he observed two automatic amusement devices in an operable condition. Sgt. Miller said it was clearly visible the two video games were on. He said he had prior knowledge they had been denied a permit for the

Mr. Pickles noted, the games had to be located in a place that was an operating business. On July 24, an emergency closure has been issued without notice or hearing to suspend the retail food license and milk and ice cream license issued to Lupo's Variety Store. The Board of Health has determined that an eminent health hazard exists which require the immediate suspension of operations. According to the report from the Marion Board of Health, there were several violations leading to this suspension including; failure to provide cold storage, numerous out of code food items, failure to provide hand washing facilities, failure to provide hot water to toilet rooms, failure to have a food establishment permit to sell sandwiches and more.

Mr. Pickles said a Board of Health will hold a show cause hearing in two weeks to determine if the license will be revoked. Selectmen Schaefer made a motion to remove the automatic amusement machines from the premises. It passed unanimously.

The Board next granted permission to allow the Marion Natural History Museum to hold a free public viewing of the skies at Silvershell Beach on Friday, August 11 from 8:00-10:00 pm. All interested members of the public are welcome to attend the viewing of the most spectacular annual meteor shower of the year. Chairman Winters said he would notify Mr. Perriera if he has the position during the second week of August. Selectmen then received a letter from the Town of Rochester, asking them to discontinue removing shrubs from the Dexter Lane property in Rochester. Chairman Winters said they would comply.

Other correspondence received was from Jack Stiffler asking for a change in the number assigned to his house on Delano Road. Until recently, there was a house at 286A Delano Road, but that house has now been moved, he wrote. Selectmen agreed to change the number to 286. Next Selectmen received congratulations from the Town of Rochester for a "very orderly and well-managed Fourth of July Fireworks. There being no further matters before the Board, they adjourned at 7:40 pm.

Walter V. Denham to inform Selectmen about the 1989 Ford Crown Victoria that was taken off patrol. "As of July 11, the new cruiser is on line and being used for patrol. I have notified the town's insurance company and have sent them the paperwork regarding the new cruiser. We have a surplus of equipment, this vehicle was used as a police patrol vehicle and has fender and door damage on the right side. Otherwise this vehicle is in fair condition and as of July 14, will be stored on the "Custom Paint Shop" property located on Pine Street. This vehicle is no longer of any use to the police department and is available to the Board of Selectmen to decide what to do with this vehicle," wrote Chief Denham.

Selectman Hughes said the cruiser is pretty well "beat up," and made a motion to put it up for bid. Selectman Hawkes abstained from voting. "I think it should've been traded in (for the custom paint job at the Town Meeting,)"she said.

Selectman Murphy seconded the motion, noting that parts had already been taken from the old cruiser. Next, Selectmen signed several invoices, including one from Ron Beaulieu for fire building regulations for $1,000 and also one for Stanley Oil for gasoline at Dexter Lane Tank for $6,782. Selectmen also signed a COPS universal hiring program form.

At 6:45 pm Selectman Murphy excused himself from a meeting with Mr. Russell Caswell, owner of Caswell Welding and Repair in East Freetown, who wants to clarify the towing procedure in town. Selectman Murphy is also one of the designated towers who responds to police calls when a tow is necessary. There are five towing companies; Steve's Towing, Acushnet/ Fairhaven Towing, Duffy's Towing Service, Caswell Welding and Repair and Murphy's Auto Salvage. Each one is designated to tow for the town on rotating weeks. "We need to designate ourselves and our trucks to handle ourselves properly. They (other towing companies) should be towing full time," Mr. Caswell said. His main complaint was that Steve's didn't respond to calls at night or weekends.

"If they've got a particular week, if somebody chooses not to tow at night, it's not fair to everyone included. We should send a letter asking them for their availability. If they have restrictions, maybe we might not use them on the list," said Selectman Hawkes. Selectman Hughes noted he'd rather have in town businesses respond to the calls because they are closer. Mr. Caswell said there should be a set of rules and if people didn't respond to calls, they shouldn't be on the list. Selectman Hawkes made a motion to send letters to all the above mentioned companies to find out their availability. Selectman Hughes seconded her motion; it passed via majority.

At 7:00 pm Selectmen met with Mr. Lorne Estabrook regarding complaints about his dog getting into neighbor's garbage. Dog Officer Thomas Medeiros and neighbor Ms. Vipon were present for the hearing. Selectman Murphy said Mr. Estabrook was working on resolving the problem. He went out and bought garbage cans with locks on them for his neighbors.

"It backfired, now everyone in the neighborhood wants one," Mr. Estabrook said jokingly. Ms. Vipon said things are working out fine. "He keeps it tied, I haven't seen his dog in two weeks," she added. Mr. Estabrook said part of the problem was caused by another neighbor, Ms. Sherman, who he said is an animal lover. "I believe she caused the problem by encouraging the dog by feeding it,

"Mr. Estabrook said. Mr. Estabrook said he was upset when he found out Ms. Sherman called neighbors to find out if they had problems with his dog.

"The bottom line is the problem has been rectified, you've gone out of your way to purchase the garbage cans out of your own pocket, they can't ask for more than that," Selectman Murphy said.

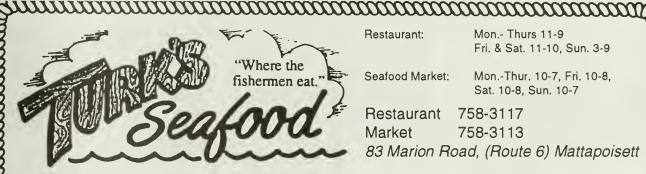

Under old business, Selectmen discussed how much it would cost to renovate an office upstairs for the conservation agent to use. Selectman Hughes said he found out the heating would cost around $400. They said once Fall comes around, they hope students at Old Colony will be able to help with the renovations. They said they will look into costs for the whole project. Selectmen next

It's true that today is a great time to sell your home. Financing is affordable and buyers are out there. Unfortunately, many sellers mistakenly assume that the difficulty in finding the RIGHT buyer for your home has decreased dramatically. Not so. If you try to sell your home yourself today, you still must face the usual difficulties. One of them is attracting the right people.

Old Colony

Sewage Disposal System certified

The Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School District, in compliance with Title V, has recently received certification of its subsurface sewage disposal system. TitleV regulations now require that sewage disposal systems with a design capacity which exceeds 10,000 gallons per day, are required to be inspected by a licensed operator once every three years. The requirements of the inspection are specifically defined in Title V and must be detailed by the operator with the end result being a report that outlines the findings and indicates whether the system has passed or failed the specific criteria. Since the system received certification and no failures were identified, reinspection will not be required until June 1998. The complete report is available for public inspection at the office of the Superintendent-Director at 476 North Avenue, Rochester, during regular business hours.

Marion Art Center

"Dear Liar"

The Marion Art Center will present "Dear Liar" on Friday, July 28 at 8:00 pm and Sunday, July 30 at 7:00 pm. The performance is a reading based on the correspondence of George Bernard Shaw and the actress Mrs. Patrick Campbell and will be done by Dick Webb and Dagmar. This is the third year these two Marion residents have read together. Two years ago, they did "Love Letters," by A.R. Gurney, and last summer they read, "The Diaries of Adam and Eve," by Mark Twain. Mrs. Patrick Campbell is best remembered as the original Eliza Doolittle in the premier of Shaw's "Pygmalion." Although she was 49- years- old at the time, she was able to successfully play a teenaged girl. Shaw and "Stella" had an ongoing love affair and their letters chronicle feelings, marriages, successes, failures, his ego, World War I, the death of loved ones and their growing old. "Dear Liar" is humorous, touching and a tribute to the talent of the writer, George Bernard Shaw. Tickets are $15 and include complimentary refreshments. Reservations are recommended. Please call 748-1266. Gwen Miller Dennis paintings exhibit

Gwen Miller Dennis is a graduate of Pine Manor College, Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture and Philadelphia College of Art where she received a B.F.A. in printmaking. Adoptable Animals

On a happy note this week, Animal Umbrella would like to announce to our faithful readers that our calico mom advertised last week has been adopted to a wonderful home in Dartmouth. On a sad note, "Lion Face" who was adopted a month ago-also to a Dartmouth home- has been returned and is desperately looking for that second chance. He went to share a home with another older male who just decided that he didn't want a companion after all. "Lion Face" is a gorgeous ginger colored neutered, declawed, older cat who was abandoned outdoors. He is wonderful with people but perhaps better in a one cat household situation. In the kitten category, most advertised last week have been adopted but of course we always have new listings which include a darling ginger colored male with white paws and chest who was recovered from Route 240 in Fairhaven. There are several tigers, both orange and gray, a real sweet buff colored male and three orange tiger females which we rarely have to offer. There are three older kittens to offer this week, one dusty orange male, a part siamese orange and white male and an all smokey gray female with white paws. These kittens are between four and five months. All kittens have been vet checked, wormed, vaccinated and the older ones rabies vaccinated. In the adult category, this is the week of the declawed cat. We are offering males and females all ages, spayed, neutered and declawed. There is an outstanding all white female. For cat lovers, there's a charcoal gray female cat who needs a good home. Call 758-2063 for more information.

In the dog house, we have two large sheperd-lab mixes. One weighs 96 lbs and the other weighs 114. Please call 984-0200 or (617) 961-9963. Also, there are many adoptable dogs at the shelter including a 4-month-old-puppy, an 8-month-old black lab mix and two dobie mixes about 6 months. Call Kristen at 979-4028.

In the lost and found department, Clarence is still missing from Park Street. The cat is a chocolate siamese. Call 758-2526 or 758-2896.

An 8-week-old black and white male kitten was found on Briarpatch Lane in Mattapoisett. Call the Animal Umbrella for more information.

Work Program for Veterans

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, in cooperation with the Department of Employment and Training, is conducting a program designed to put veterans back to work. The workers involved here have already gone through the first stages of the VA Vocational Rehabilitation program and are ready to work in the private sector, according to Ira Berman, a vocational rehabilitation specialist in the Brockton-West Roxbury VA Medical Center.

The VA is looking for companies to hire such workers. It will negotiate a contract with a company to provide workers at a flat rate, frequently slightly above minimum wage. Companies can save by hiring through the program because the VA handles payroll production, as well as Social Security, worker's compensation, and state and federal payroll tax deductions. For details, contact William Mumford at the Brockton VA Medical Center (508-583-4500, extension 3355), or contact the local

Benefit Golf Tournament in Marion

Don't miss the opportunity to play the Kittansett Club Golf Course while supporting Tobey Hospital. Enter now to play the 13th Annual Tobey Hospital Benefit Golf Tournament slated for Monday, September 25 at the picturesque Kittansett Club in Marion. The Kittansett course is ranked among the top 100 in the nation. Designed by Frederick Hood, the course opened in 1923. It is a "links" style course, with a layout that depends on the natural features of the land and a constant wind, rather than artificial obstacles, to provide a challenging game of golf.

Co-chairing the event this year are Greg and Nancy Johnson of Wareham. Other committee members are Rosemary See, Marjorie Munro, Diane Perkins, Chris Makepeace, Roland Murphy, Cindy Outhouse, and Sharon Newcomb. Proceeds from the tournament will purchase equipment for the hospital.

A day at Kittansett would make the perfect birthday present. Entry forms and sponsorship information is available by calling the hospital Development Office at 291-3717. The popular event is limited to the first 128 entrants and is usually fully subscribed, so interested golfers are urged to sign up as soon as possible.

The entry fee is $175 per player, which includes golf cart, greens fees, and an elaborate dinner buffet with numerous team and individual prizes. The tournament is open to both men and women.

UMass Theater Summer Shows

With a pair of crowd-pleasing outdoor musicals and two full-scale cabaret productions, the UMass Dartmouth Theater Company's 22nd summer season will play a major role in the university's Centennial Summer Cultural Series.

For the second year in a row, Compass Bank has provided financial support for a series of summer cultural events on the UMass Dartmouth campus. This year, Compass Bank was joined by Trust Insurance, Commonwealth Electric, Finney Outdoor Advertising, and the Ottoway Foundation in making a substantial contribution in support of the UMass Dartmouth Theater Company.

"Camelot" will take center stage for performances on August 24, August 25, August 26, and August 27, each beginning at 8:00 pm. The show will be held in the Vietnam Veterans Peace Memorial Amphitheater.

The outdoor presentation is FREE and the public is invited to picnic on the UMass Dartmouth grounds. The public is also reminded to bring lawn chairs, blankets and bug spray. Parking for the outdoor shows is available in lots 13, 14 and 15.

The Cabaret schedule includes "The Song is You," a musical review celebrating Oscar Hammerstein II which will be presented July 27 - 30 and August 3 - 6. All cabaret performances are held in the UMass Dartmouth campus center and will begin at 8:30 pm. Parking is available in lots 5 and 6 on campus. Tickets for the cabaret shows are $8 for the general public and $7 for senior citizens and students.

For additional information about subscription tickets for the Cabaret shows, which include VIP seating at the two outdoor shows, please call 999-8316.

Athletic Scholarships Available

Over 100,000 collegiate athletic scholarships are available each year to male and female high school and junior college student athletes. Contrary to popular belief, students don't have to be All-State to qualify. Much of this money goes unused. A new publication with forms, sample letters and tables of factual information is available for student athletes. It takes them step by step through the important process of getting an athletic scholarship and includes college and conference listings.

For information on how to get a collegiate athletic scholarship, send a self-addressed (business size), stamped envelope to the National Sports Foundation, 611A Willow Drive, P.O. Box 940, Oakhurst, NJ 07755.
